

SPANSK FESTIVAL 2023

Sustainable Development Goals

Goal 5: Gender equality

Spanish Short Film Competition

Spanish Presentation Competition

The Spansk Festival organization, in collaboration with Oslo Kommune and Viken Fylkeskommune, is organizing a short film and presentation competition for Spanish students for students in the whole of Norway.

In this call, the objectives of the contest are the following:

- Use the study of Spanish to promote global principles and values among students and foster general interest in the Spanish language.
- Extend and deepen the knowledge of the Millennium Development Goals (SDGs) of the United Nations Development Program among young Norwegian students, especially SDG 5 "Gender equality".
 - <https://www.un.org/sustainabledevelopment/gender-equality/>
- Increase the students' sensitivity towards the importance of the challenges of achieving gender equality, offering them an opportunity for reflection.
- Establish a cross-sectional collaborative framework in the field of humanities in secondary education that allows combining topics of social interest, the use of new technologies and the practical use of Spanish as a vehicular language.
- Promote the learning and dissemination of Spanish on social networks through the short films or presentations made by the students.
- Contribute to the development of creativity, conceptual and methodological rigor of students, as well as the improvement of their communication and learning strategies.
- Encourage teamwork and integration.
